

Commemorating Ghadar: Radical Politics in Colonial and Post-Colonial South Asia
December 6 - 7, 2014

Schedule for the 10th Annual Humanities and Social Sciences Conference

Day 1

Saturday, December 6th 2014

Venue: B-2, Suleman Dawood School of Business

10:00 – 10:30 Registration/Tea

10:30 – 11:00 Keynote Address

Harish K. Puri

Professor Emeritus, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar

Commemorating Ghadar Movement (1913-18) and Exploring Its Legacy

11:00 – 01:00 Session 1

James Daniel Elam

PhD Scholar, Northwestern University

Har Dayal's Library and Ghadar's Mutinous Reading

Tahir Kamran

Iqbal Fellow, University of Cambridge

Ghadar Movement: Muslim Trans-Nationalism and Indian Nationalism

Radha D' Souza

Reader, School of Law, University of Westminster

British Responses to the Ghadar Movement and the Structural Transformation of South Asia

01:00 – 02:30 Lunch Break

02:30 – 04:00 Session 2

Kaori Mizukami

PhD Scholar, University of Tokyo

The Functioning and Supporters of the Ghadar Movement in Japan: Perspectives from Japanese Sources

Zaib un Nisa Aziz

Teaching Fellow, Lahore University of Management Sciences

Passages from India: Indian anti-Colonial Activism in Exile Between 1905 and 1920

Maia Ramnath

Associate Professor, Department of History, University of Pennsylvania

Ghadar's North American Legacy

04:00 – 04:30 Tea Break

04:30 – 06:00 Session 3

Iqbal Qaiser

Writer, Historian and Director of Punjabi Khoj Garh

Punjabi Revolutionary Poetry

Maqsood Saqib

Writer, Activist and Director of Suchet Kitab Garh

The Ghadar Party: Background, Aims and Achievements

08:00 – 10:00 Cultural Evening – 'Heer'

Day 2
Sunday, December 7th 2014
Venue: Sayeed Saigol, Academic Block

10:30 – 11:00

Tea

11:00 – 11:30

Keynote Address

Mubarak Ali
Eminent Pakistani Historian

11:30 – 01:00

Session 1

Virinder Kalra
Senior Lecturer, Department of Sociology, University of Manchester
Migrant Consciousness and Ghadar Legacies

Chris Moffat
Department of History, University of Cambridge
Recalling Ghadar

Ahmed Kamran
Blogger and Independent Researcher
The Ghadar Movement – its Aftermath and Impact on the Indian Independence Movement and the Communist Movement in Punjab

01:00– 02:30

Lunch Break

02:30 – 04:00

Session 2

Sara Kazmi
Lecturer, Department of Liberal Arts, Beaconhouse National University
Language as Class: The Cultural Politics of the Punjabi Movement in Pakistan

S. Irfan Habib
Maulana Azad Chair, National University of Educational Planning and Administration,
New Delhi
The Legacy of Bhagat Singh

Basim Tirmizey
PhD Scholar, York University
The Grain Ghadar of 1915: An Inquiry into Anti-Imperialist Resistance

04:00 – 04:30

Concluding Remarks